

LECOMB COLLEGE

June, 1959

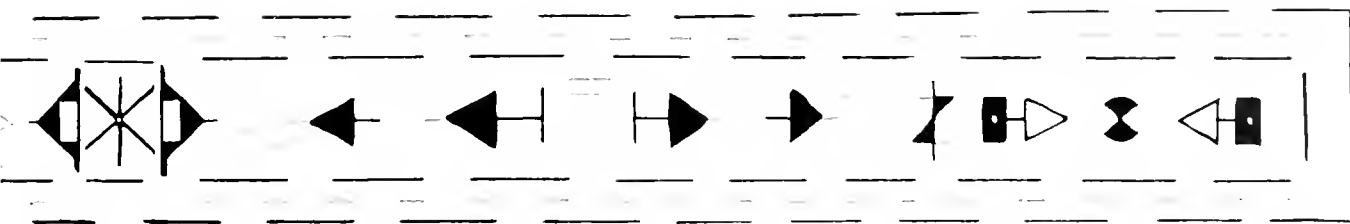

Williamsport, Pa.

G. HEIL GRANLEY

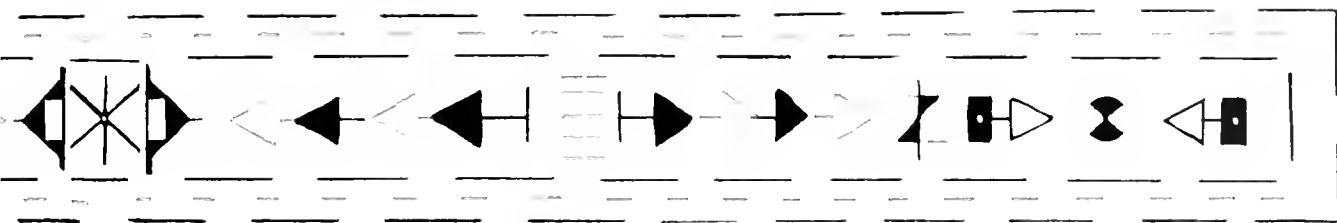

IN APPRECIATION

Standing at the threshold of a new life, the Class of 1959 pauses to pay tribute to one who has helped make this day possible. Guiding our steps as we traveled the path in search of our various degrees, you have more than once prevented us from slipping over the precipice marked "defeat." Yet, as you lent the assist, it was done so unobtrusively that the ensuing decision we made seemed to be our own.

Through your classes, you have shared a vast storehouse of practical experiences which will minimize for us the likelihood of tragic and costly mistakes. Your ready smile, your cheery greetings, your effervescent personality invited everyone to come and share his problems with you. Our problems became your problems. Yet, they seemed to melt into nothingness when we discussed them with you.

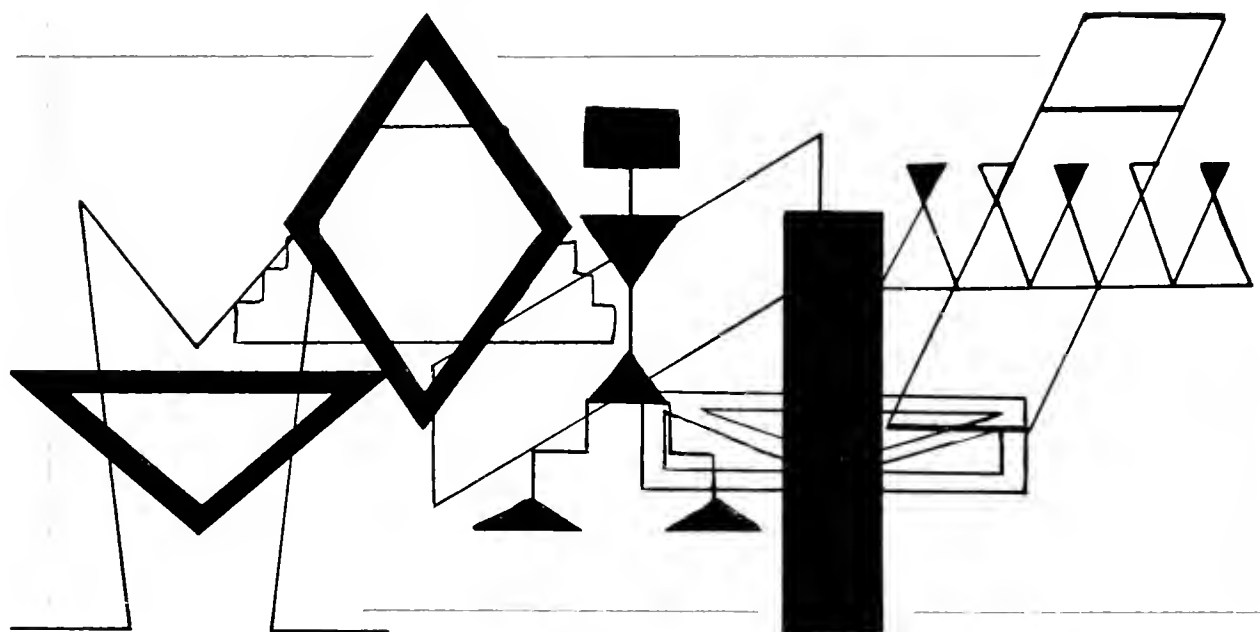

Wherever we go, whatever we do, your influence upon our lives will be felt.

We, the Class of 1959, take pleasure in dedicating the 1959 ARROW to you, G. Heil Gramley. May it always remind you of our affection for one who constantly shows his genuine concern for the welfare of the students of Lycoming College.

Crosses

CLIFFORD SMITH

The highest non-academic honor which can be bestowed upon a student at Lycoming College is the Chieftain Award.

The recipient of this award, a member of the Senior Class, is chosen by both the faculty and students. The person selected must possess the qualities of marked leadership ability, high moral code, pleasing personality, good scholastic standing and the facility to be compatible with the administration and classmates alike. These attributes are to be combined with a great contribution to Lycoming through long and selfless effort towards the success of its activities.

We salute this year's award winner as one possessed of all these qualities in the highest degree. He is truly all that a leader should be. Congratulations, Cliff. May success ever guide your way.

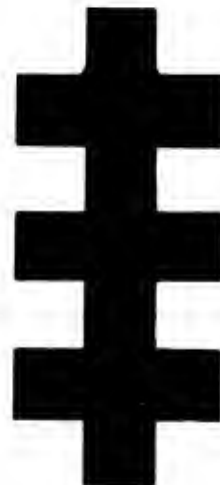

*Seated—Claramae Cohick, Lois Congdon, Shirley Adams, Gail Meconi.
Standing—Dale Bower, Don Habel, Clifford Smith.*

The Iruska Honor Society exists at Lycoming for the purpose of honoring those students whose contributions have been outstanding in the field of extra-curricular activity. Thus, the society is composed of those students who have given noteworthy service to the Band, Choir, Dramatics or other societies and organizations on Campus. They are identified by a blue and gold hat with the letter "I" thereon.

One of the newest activities of the Society has been to conduct tours around Campus for visitors and prospective students. New members are chosen from the Junior Class and are inducted into the society on Moving-Up Day each spring.

JUNIOR CLASS

The mantle of leadership, dropped by the senior class upon graduation, will be picked up by the juniors pictured above.

They are not unworthy of this honor. The juniors have survived the rigors of three years of steadily increasing scholastic standards without faltering. They have ably served Lycoming in many capacities.

The junior class is closest to the senior class in point of time, and it is with them that we share the most memories of our college career. We wish them much happiness and success as they succeed to the senior honors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

You have now spent two years at Lycoming. The newness has worn off, and you are now fully initiated into that peculiar sort of life called "collegiate." You have filled your place in Lycoming's society well, and we are proud to own you as friends and classmates.

Soon you will become upperclassmen, joining the seniors as leaders of the school. We know you are well equipped for this, and we heartily wish you well, both in the next two years and in your lives after graduation.

FRESHMAN

You have now arrived at the close of your first year at Lycoming. You arrived here, the largest class yet to enter Lycoming, fresh from the fun and prestige of a high school senior year. You looked forward with anticipation and something akin to anxiety to your freshman year. You passed, with remarkable poise, through the weeks of initiation and completed the election of your class officers with an almost professional dispatch. We admire your spirit and promise, and we believe that you will be, as a class, one of the brightest ornaments of Lycoming's future.

We shall not be here to see you accomplish this, but we wish you all the happiness that we have experienced in our lives at Lycoming and all success in your future beyond college.

HON. ROBERT F. RICH, LL.D.
Chairman of the Board

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

For the first time in the history of Lycoming College, we have had honorary members of the Board of Directors. The Class of 1959 welcomes them to the fold and hopes that their association with the College will be pleasant and satisfying.

Hon. Robert F. Rich, LL.D.; The Rev. A. Lawrence Miller, Ph.D.; The Rev. W. J. Watkins, D.D.; The Rev. J. Elbert Wilson, LL.D.; The Rev. W. W. Banks, LL.D.

Robert, Dr., Joan, Duchess, Mrs., Donna, Beth

TO THE CLASS OF 1959:

You and I came to Lycoming College together in 1955. You were inexperienced Freshmen; I was a newly elected President. We have been educated side by side.

This gives me a feeling of affection for you. And it is with a peculiar mixture of emotions that I bid you farewell.

But in a larger sense, I do not bid you farewell at all. I bid you welcome into a larger family of Lycoming, our Alumni. Here you will accept new responsibilities.

I used to tell you that you were representatives of the College in all you did. That was never more true than it is today. You are now the product of Lycoming College. Wear your mantle proudly that Lycoming may be proud of you.

The world will expect great things of you because there is a tremendous need for the leadership of the educated. I earnestly pray that you will show yourselves to be worthy of this hour.

Very sincerely,

Frederick Herz

One of the most difficult jobs connected with any college is that of publishing the campus newspaper. It is the responsibility of this organization to report news, but usually on a campus the news is already known by most of the students. Therefore, the college newspaper must be more than news; it must pave the way for future events, create interest in activities and occasions, bring to light little known interests and subjects on the campus, and of course give news that is as fresh as possible. The Bell this year has done an admirable job in all respects. It has acted as an important instrument of student opinion and helped to solidify student attitudes. The editors and staff of the paper are entitled to a vote of thanks for enlightening the students through the medium of the newspaper.

WBEL

The school's own radio station is an outgrowth of a weekly radio program known as Campus Chatter, aired over WLYC. It was the feeling that this program was not adequate for the campus and thus was born WBEL. During the year, broadcasts were heard five nights each week from 6:00 P. M. until 1:00 A. M. A variety of programs was offered ranging from classical music to rock 'n roll; from campus to world news; from professor and administration interviews to variety shows. In other words, a complete schedule was offered. This year the radio station was "piped" into Wesley Hall only, but plans show that eventually all dorms will have this worthwhile entertainment.

McIver, Mencer, Bouton.

For the past 11 years, the Lycoming College Choir has been under the direction of Walter G. McIver, however, when the choir made their tour this year, they were without their long-time director. Mr. McIver had been cited by the United States government by being asked to be a member of a choir of twenty-three Westminster graduates who were invited to go on a good-will singing tour of Africa under the direction of Dr. John Finley Williamson. The choir proudly relinquished their director for this international recognition. In the absence of Mr. McIver, the choir was under the direction of the well-known Dr. Gustav Lehmann during the second semester. Through his efforts, the choir was able to take, as scheduled, their annual tour.

The tour for the 1958-59 school year was into the Southland. Concerts were sung in Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Washington, D. C. and Pennsylvania. In the District of Columbia, the choir sang in the Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church which is the largest Methodist Church in the District. The trip lasted twelve days and was the longest trip taken within the United States.

The choir was kept busy during the year taking several side trips, singing in chapel each week, participating in vesper services and special occasions, and enjoying interesting activities within the choir itself.

KENNETH JOSEPHSON
Our Director

"Small in number, but large in spirit." That is a good description of the school's instrumental organization. During the year, and especially during the football season, the Band proved to be not only a musical organization which was constantly improving itself but also a group of musicians with an overabundance of school spirit. The band not only played at games and cheered itself blue in the face but also performed on the field during half time. The musicians participated during the entire year at rallies, assemblies, and other special occasions. Under the capable direction of Mr. Kenneth Josephson (a celloist at heart), the Band grew and matured this year. "An ever growing, ever improving organization with a bright future." This is our Band.

STUDENT GOVERNING BODIES

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The organization known as the Student Council or Student Government can be compared to the lower house of the two-house system of government. This body represents all of the students of the college making it a sounding board for student problems and attitudes. The upper house of the college is the administration. Through the existence of the Student Government, there is a place where both student, faculty, and administration can come together and consolidate their differing ideas into a mutual understanding, thus helping to make the college run more smoothly with respect for all opinions.

In addition to working with the administration, the Student Government endeavors to enforce and govern the rules of the student body. The Council encourages school spirit and sees that students are participating in the various functions of the college, many of which are sponsored and carried out by the Student Government itself.

As long as an organization of this type continues and is supported by the students, the student body will have a loud and proper voice in governing and determining policies of the student body. The appreciation of the students is owed to their representatives for greatly advancing the position of the student at Lycoming College.

Seated—Faus, Eastwood, Layton, Hammond. Standing—Sheaffer, Jones, Ramsey, Eschelman, McComas, Felix, Nicodemus, Knights, Cropp, Koch, Hodge, Diplock.

RELIGIOUS LIFE COUNCIL

One of the main functions of the Religious Life Council is to arrange for chapel programs and chapel speakers. Through the untiring efforts of these people, the best possible speakers are obtained for the student body. This year, such great men as Bishop Oxnam and Dr. Sockman of the Methodist Church, Dr. Muehl and Dr. Napier of Yale University, Representative Judd of Minnesota, Dr. Gezork of Andover Newton Theological School, and other equally fine speakers were offered in the chapel each Tuesday morning. Through these efforts, Lycoming College has achieved one of the finest chapel programs in the country.

The Council is also responsible for the religious life of the campus. One of the highlights of the year is the annual Brotherhood Week program sponsored by the Religious Life Council. Many thanks are appropriate for an excellent job done by this group composed of members of the student body, faculty, and administration.

RICH HOUSE

The object of a college education is not only the attainment of an academic education but also a development of talents and interests. The honorary fraternities recognize this dual purpose by setting both academic standards and interest standards for members. At Lycoming there are four such fraternities: a history fraternity for those achieving outstanding averages and interest in history; a band sorority for above average participation by girls in a musical organization; a band fraternity for men with the same achievement; and a dramatics fraternity for those people with not only academic averages, but also unusual ability in some aspect of the theater. By induction into such an organization, the person is given the honor of joining with a national organization in recognition of his services.

INTER- FRATERNITY COUNCIL

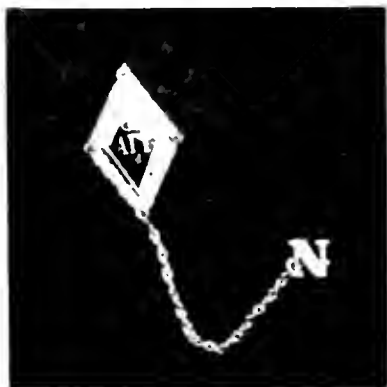

The job of coordinating the work of the fraternities on Campus is accomplished through the I. F. C. This council maintains the rules on rushing, coordinates the social events of the five fraternities, acts as interlocker between the fraternities and the administration, and irons out mutual fraternity problems. The Council consists of three representatives from each of the national and local fraternities on campus. Although each is a member of a fraternity wherein his primary loyalty lies, when they meet as a unit, individual interests are dissolved into the common good. Fraternity life on campus is made more enjoyable through the work of the Inter-Fraternity Council.

ALPHA GAMMA UPSILON

NU CHAPTER

Alpha Gamma Upsilon National Fraternity was founded at Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 1922. Nu Chapter was chartered at Lycoming College April 21, 1951, but was first organized in 1950 as Beta Kappa Upsilon, with the express purpose of becoming a chapter of AGU. Nu Chapter has the distinction of being the first Eastern Chapter of the primarily mid-western organization. The brothers of AGU work together to produce men of high character and ability who hold aloft the ideals of brotherhood, democracy, and service to the college and the community. The many and varied activities of Nu Chapter are climaxed each year by a Spring Formal Banquet and Ball.

The brothers wish those who are graduating from their chapter the same spirit of fellowship throughout life as has been theirs during their undergraduate days.

PSI CHAPTER

KAPPA DELTA RHO

When someone this year accused the members of KDR of being on the move, he wasn't kidding. Psi Chapter moved from its house on Bennett Street to a much more spacious residence on Franklin Street in "Fraternity Row." With increased facilities, KDR is looking forward to extended activities. However, in the rush of moving, the brothers still found time to be well represented in all college organizations and to sponsor their share of social functions. When those brothers who are graduating return to the campus, they will see the Psi Chapter expanded and grown, but still with the fraternal fellowship of the days past.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

IOTA BETA CHAPTER

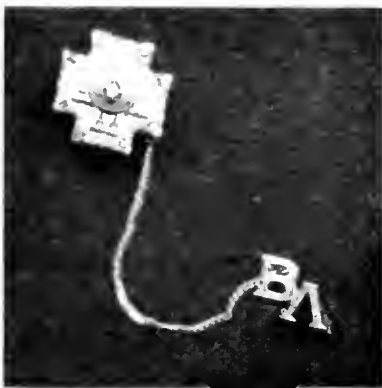

The local Iota Beta Chapter is a member of the largest social fraternity. Lambda Chi has one hundred and forty-eight chapters in the United States and Canada. It is the supreme goal of the fraternity to contribute to the attainment of truth, justice and the well-being of humanity in the largest measure possible. It is with this spirit that Iota Chapter conducts itself in the scholastic, athletic, and social activities of the campus, thus gaining last year the coveted President's Trophy. This year the brothers won the beauty prize, that is, Claramae Cohick, Miss Lambda Chi Alpha, was chosen Homecoming Queen. The brothers wish the members of the Class of 1959 success in their chosen fields.

SIGMA PI

BETA LAMBDA CHAPTER

The Beta Lambda Chapter was founded at Lycoming in 1953. Sigma Pi was organized in order to establish a brotherhood of and for the college; to advance the cause of education; to promote scholarship and culture; to raise the standard of morality and develop the character of men; to encourage chivalry and to diffuse culture.

Two of the highlights of the social year at Lycoming are sponsored by Sigma Pi, namely, The Crystal Ball at Christmas time, and The Orchid Ball. This year, as usual, these events were delightfully successful due to the untiring efforts of the brothers. Miss Gerry Pratt has reigned as Miss Sigma Pi for this year. During the year the brothers have provided outstanding leadership among the campus organizations.

EPSILON BETA CHAPTER

THETA CHI

In 1955, the Epsilon Beta Chapter of Theta Chi was established at Lycoming College. With this establishment, the Chapter occupied a unique position among the campus fraternities, being the youngest campus fraternity but having the oldest national organization. Theta Chi has endeared itself to the campus through its active participation and interest in the college, its kick off dance in the Fall, its serenading, and its sending of carnations to the women students on their birthdays. This fraternity could be called the "watch-dog" of the campus because of its high perch atop Bradley Hall. High also is the quality of the leadership discernible throughout campus organizations wherein the brothers are involved.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Another well known organization on the Lycoming campus is the International Relations Club. This club has as one of its goals the promotion of better relations among nations through learning more about them. To this end, the club conducts discussion groups, shows films and employs other means to inform and heighten the understanding of its members.

Every year, the I. R. C. sends representatives to the Model United Nations, which is composed wholly of college students representing similar groups. A permanent place on the club's program is also given for a visit to United Nations, New York.

The organization is a supporter of the World University Service, which aids colleges and universities in the under-developed areas of the world. For this cause, a series of International Film Classics was shown this year. The I. R. C. is one of our most useful and active organizations.

Seated—Manley, Johnson, Congdon, Hoffman, Albazzaz, Suhardi, Kassir, Swaroop. Standing—Grier, Moortgat, Peterson, Priest, Wright, Sherman, Warrington, Hackenberry, Soyster, Berry, Smith.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

To provide denominational fellowship among Methodist students of Lycoming is the purpose of the M. S. M. STUDENT ACTIVITIES BUILDING

The first step in an expansion and development program of new buildings, renovations, and land improvement designed to keep Lycoming College abreast with advancement in higher education was taken on Monday, April 14, 1958. Ground was broken on that date for the $509,000 Student Activities Building. This building, which will provide social and cultural facilities for students, will also house food service for students and faculty.

Robert F. Rich, President of the Board of Directors, turned over the first spadeful of ground. He was followed by D. Frederick Wertz, President of the College; and Chancey R. Rawleigh, Student Government Association President. Other Lycoming College students followed suit by turning over spadefuls of soil.

HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING QUEENS

With the arrival of brisk autumn weather, a spirit of anticipation was felt on our campus. This spirit heralded the approach of Homecoming weekend, the most important weekend of our school year, and the one most carefully prepared for.

Long hours of work and planning were put into the exhibits of the several organizations and much time was spent in pep-meetings and football practice in preparation for the big game. To Lycoming, from all parts of the country, came former students, many of whom remember a very different Lycoming. They returned to renew old friendships and to share again in college life.

After the game, there was the alumni banquet and the dance, which brought the big weekend to a close; and the alumni, with feelings of pleasant nostalgia, left their Alma Mater for another year.

MAY DAY QUEENS

In order to herald the return of sunshine and flowers, and a certain languorous approach to life, a day is set aside in May to place a crown of flowers upon the head of a young lady who best represents youth and beauty. She is, thus, with attendant ceremonial, proclaimed Queen of the May.

This coronation takes place in the chapel which is banked with flowers for the occasion. The scene is enlivened by young ladies, gracefully attired in white, and accompanied by somberly clad gentlemen. The procession moves slowly up the aisle to the strains of POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE. After proper protestations of fidelity and devotion by her subjects, Her Majesty receives her crown.

Following these ceremonies, there is a dance in the evening. Everyone agrees that with the music, the dancing, the flowers, the lovely young queen, May and Springtime have properly arrived.

Lycoming College witnessed its best football season in the history of the College. The Warriors won seven and lost a tough game to Juniata.

The Lyco's had their usual pre-season training at Camp Kline, putting in ten days of intensive work, preparing themselves for the tough schedule ahead.

In almost every game Lycoming came back in the second half to win. This proves the courage and stamina of a good football squad. Every game and scrimmage was characterized by Lyco's hard tackling and excellent teamwork.

The team suffered a big loss with the injuring of Tip Agnello in the second game of the season. This left Paul Motta with the responsibility of filling the quarterback position. This he did very successfully. John Grier, an outstanding halfback, displayed fine footwork in gaining yardage against the opposition. John Joe was relied upon many times to pick up the extra few yards for a first down. Frank Agnello, a senior guard, played outstanding ball, both on offense and defense. Ed Receski, the other guard, broke through the opposition's offensive line many times to make tackles in the enemy backfield. Bob Delbono did his part very successfully by opening the center of the line.

Stan Okotkewicz breaking a 26-26 tie with only 5 seconds to play. Western Maryland. Ball at upper right.

Burt Richardson #27 smashes a Geneva runner.

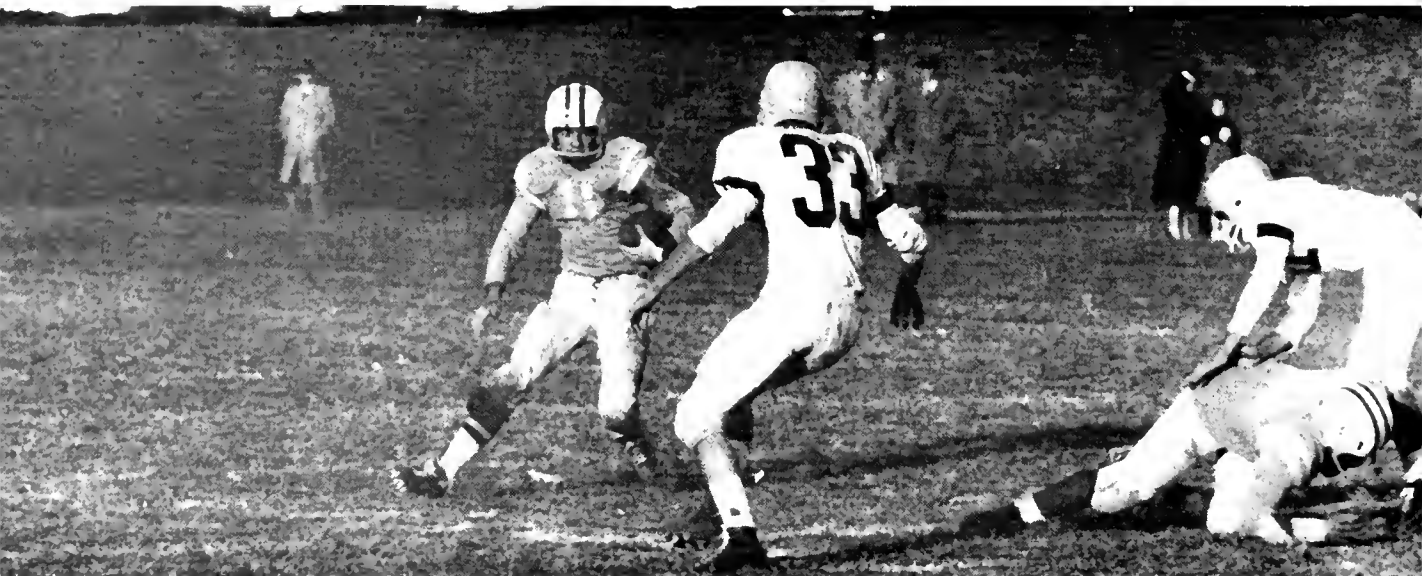

John Grier breaking loose for a TD against Geneva.

WARRIORS vs. BRIDGEPORT

The Warriors, under adverse conditions of a continuous rainfall and a halftime score of 6-0, came back in the second half to trounce Bridgeport 20-12.

With a set up pass of fifty yards from Tip Agnello, Grier tied the score at 6-6. John Joe scored the final two touchdowns. The first touchdown was a seventy five yard kickoff return run.

The bleachers were empty because of a heavy down pour but the spirit of Yats remained with the Warriors.

Paul Motta starting his long run that set up the final victory against Western Maryland.

During the Juniata game the hard tackling caused several fumbles. Stan Okotkewicz tackling.

LYCOMING vs. ST. LAWRENCE

The Warriors once again proved their courage by faithfully coming from a 9-6 score at half time to beat St. Lawrence 41-9.

Frank Agnello intercepted a pass on the Larries ten and stepped over for a touchdown. Jim Miller picked up a loose ball and ran the remaining distance for pay dirt. It took six plays and Joe plunging from the two for another score. In the last quarter, Joe scored again. Also, Peters and Williams scored on pass plays from Looney.

Ike Williams smashes over for a TD, leaving P. M. C. holding part of his shirt.

LYCOMING VS. ALBRIGHT

Lycoming won their first home game at Bowman Field against Albright College before thirty-five hundred fans. It was the first night football game in this city in twenty-six years. The Lycos took the lead and held it the entire game to a final score of 24-8.

Paul Motta, John Cox, Burt Richardson, and Paul Looney held the scoring honors for Lycoming. Williamsporter Walt Boyer, speedy little halfback, was the big gun in the Warriors' offense. Guard Frank Agnello played his great brand of football on the line, as he does most of the time.

WARRIORS VS. JUNIATA

Lycoming bowed out of their undefeated season at the annual Homecoming Day, with a defeat at the hands of Juniata, by a score of 27-7. The largest crowd—3800—saw Lycoming team play in Williamsport and witnessed the Warriors' persistent but futile attempts to score.

Senior, "jumping" John Joe scored the only touchdown for the Warriors. Near scores were made by halfback John Grier and Paul Motta.

The Homecoming Queens were paraded before the crowd. Governor George Leader witnessed the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Clara Mae Colick.

Richardson—27—slowing down a target for Grier—21—during Geneva's defeat.

Teroy Thompson (76) and unidentified team mate crushing a Geneva player.

LYCOMING vs. WILKES

The Lycos came back triumphantly after the Homecoming game to beat Wilkes College 39-0 at Bowman Field.

Halfback Ike Williams led the Warriors with a pair of touchdowns. Paul Motta scored after 15 plays had taken them to the one. Okotkewicz scored from the ten, after a recovery by Ed Receski on the Wilkes twenty one. Grier displayed some fine open field running, and also received a 52 yard pass from Williams. An eleven yard (Williams to Boyer) pass was the final score of the night.

John Joe (35) plows through the Geneva line.

WARRIORS vs. P. M. C.

Lycoming, sparked by two outstanding runbacks of punts by John Grier and Ike Williams, came from behind to defeat Penn Military College 13-12. The Warriors were the underdogs of the contest. The Cadets had won five games up to this game and were leading the Southern Division of the Middle Atlantic conference.

Grier, Walt Boyer, and Ike Williams did most of the gaining for the Lycos.

Western Maryland ball-carrier is up-ended by Opie Reed (71) and Stan Okotkewicz.

Walt Boyer darting through a hole into Juniata territory.

LYCOMING vs. WESTERN MARYLAND

The Warriors came back from a 26-0 score to beat Western Maryland 27-26. This was Western Maryland's third Homecoming loss in sixty-five years. In the first two quarters, everything went well for Western Maryland, but in the second and third quarter, Paul Motta scored. John Grier, who played one of his best games of his career, scored twice in the fourth quarter. Stan Okotkewicz broke the 26-26 tie by converting for the extra point with only a few seconds left in the game.

Against P. M. C., Ed Receski, making the tackle - spent most of the game behind enemy lines.

LYCOMING vs. GENEVA

Geneva came to Bowman field hoping to blemish Lycoming's best year. Much to their disgust and surprise, they were sent home defeated by a score of 14-12. Again John Grier pulled Lyco ahead by scoring two touchdowns.

The conversions of fullbacks Okotkewicz and Richardson were the points that decided the victory for Lycoming.

The down pour of rain failed to dampen the spirit of the Dads, who were here for the annual Dads' Day game. The players' fathers were proud that their sons came through with a victory.

Richardson - 27 - cutting through a slot opened by Receski's block on Geneva.

Lycoming started its second soccer season with much enthusiasm. Due to lack of experience of some of the players and injuries to key players, the team had a losing season; but in general, everyone thought the team did well. This was only the second year for this sport at Lycoming.

Next year, there will be more experienced men on the squad, and we are looking forward to a great season.

Lycoming's goalie, Gary Dennison, makes a double save, the goal attempt and himself.

LYCOMING COLLEGE

D. FREDERICK WERTZ, President

Lycoming College, founded in 1812, is a co-educational liberal arts college, granting both the A.B. and B.S. degrees. The liberal arts program is basic to the professions of medicine, theology, teaching, law, dentistry, and is desirable in engineering, science, pharmacy, nursing, and veterinary medicine.

Five-year cooperative programs in engineering and forestry were started in September, 1953. The plan calls for three years of liberal arts study at Lycoming combined with two years of engineering at Bucknell University or The Pennsylvania State University or two years of forestry at Duke University. The student earns the A.B. degree from Lycoming and a professional degree from the cooperating institution.
